

“Questions About Heaven”

1. Will Heaven be an actual place? John 14:2-3

- Jesus uses _____ terms to describe Heaven.
“place” “where” “come back and take you”
- We are told Heaven is a _____. – Heb. 11:10, 13:14
- Heaven is also described as a _____. Heb. 11:16

2. Will we look like ourselves? Luke 24:39

- Our bodies will be like _____. 1 Cor. 15:20, 48-49
- We will retain our _____ and features but no longer be subject to sin, death, suffering, and the Curse. Rev. 21:4

3. What will we do in Heaven? Luke 19:11-27, Rev. 22:3-5

- We will worship and _____ Him.
- We will _____ and serve Him with our particular gifts.
- We will help Him _____ and run the Universe.
- We will _____. Rev. 14:13, Heb. 4:10-11

4. How close a relationship will we have with God?

- It’s so close that He chose to _____ with us. Rev. 21:3
- You will see His _____. 22:4

5. Will the New Earth have animals? Romans 18:19-23

- They were part of the original _____. Gen. 1-2
- They were rescued from the _____. Gen. 6
- Isaiah _____ & _____ depict animals on the New Earth.
- They, like all creation, eagerly _____ final Redemption.

6. Will we own our homes in Heaven? John 14:2

In Luke 16 Jesus tells us, through ministry, to make eternal friends who will one day welcome us into their _____. V.9

7. What won’t be in Heaven? Isaiah 11:9, 65:25

- Nothing that _____ or _____.

8. Will time cease to exist? Rev. 6:9-11

- Time is _____ in Heaven. Rev. 8:1
- _____ like conversations have beginnings, middle, and end.
- God exists _____ of time and space, but we don’t.

9. Will we know everything in the next life?

- NO ... God alone is _____.
- Even the _____ don’t know everything. 1 Peter 1:12
- We will know _____ than we know now, but we will never know everything, because we will never be God. 1 Cor. 13:12

d. Heaven could never be _____ because we will always be learning and growing, especially in the knowledge of Him. Eph. 2:6-7

10. Will we remember what happened on Earth?

- a. We will actually remember more, not less ... seeing how God _____ on our behalf when we didn't realize it.
- b. We will be _____ for the bad things we endured.
Luke 16:25, Rev. 6:9-11, 21:4
- c. We will give an _____ for our lives on Earth, down to specific words and actions. 2 Cor. 5:10, Mt. 12:36
- d. Human _____ will be remembered since there are memorials in Heaven. Rev. 21:12-14, John 20:24-29

11. Will we be reunited with and recognize loved ones?

- a. The 3 disciples recognized _____ and _____ even though they weren't told who they were. Mt. 17:1-4
- b. When _____ died he was gathered to his people. Gen. 49:33

12. Will there be marriage and family in Heaven?

- a. There will be one _____ in Heaven... between Christ and His Bride. Mt. 22:30
- b. God will be our Father. We are His children. We are each other's brothers and sisters. (Heaven IS _____) Mt. 22:31-32
- c. But there will be families (Eph. 3:14-15) and those with whom we were closest to on earth will comprise our _____ relationships there.
- d. _____ relationships will be developed without losing our old ones.

13. Can those in present Heaven see what's happening on earth?

- _____, at least to some extent. Rev. 6:9-11, 18:20, 19:11-14, Hebrews 12:1-2

14. Could it really be Heaven if people there are aware of bad things that happened on earth? Rev. 14:10, Luke 16:23-26

- _____ people in Heaven could see or know about earth would ruin Heaven for them.

15. Can a person KNOW for certain that Heaven will be their final destination? 1 John 5:5:11-13

- a. _____, but its not automatic.
- b. For every person believing he is going to Hell, there are _____ who believe they are going to Heaven when they die. Mt. 7:13-14
- c. Jesus talked about _____ more than anyone. 10:28, 13:40-42
- d. Unless our _____ is dealt with, the only place we can go is Hell.