

A Marriage Made for Heaven, COS Outline with Peter A. Kerr

Marriages are not made in _____ Heaven, but are made for _____ Heaven. God made marriage for His glory _____ and for the good of His children. We must fight for marriage to be defined as one man and one woman _____.

Eph 5: 21-33 Submit to one another _____ out of reverence for Christ. Countries with a Christian heritage offer FAR more freedoms and rights _____ to women.

Men should use their strength to outstep _____ women.

- 1) Men must be spiritual _____ leaders in the home, setting values/patterns.
- 2) Men must be wise _____ leaders, ensuring the family is provided for.
- 3) Men are the responsible _____ leaders, where the final decision lies.

This means making the decision that is best for the family _____. God's will is best discerned together _____, by both the husband and wife.

Just as God and Jesus had hierarchy but were of equal value, husbands and wives have hierarchy but are of equal _____ value. This leads to order and more glory _____ to God.

Women are commanded to show husbands respect _____. Men are commanded to give women unconditional _____ love.

One of the most accurate definitions of love is the willingness to sacrifice _____ yourself for the other.

Marriage is supposed to be like a shadow _____ of Heaven on earth. Your marriage is a training ground so that you can learn how to love _____.

No matter where your marriage is, God can reach _____ it!